

AI Maturity Tool: Terms of Use

When a user ("User") registers to the AI Maturity Tool ("Service"), a contract concerning use of the Service is established between the user and the service provider (VTT Technical Research Centre of Finland Ltd ("VTT"), Business ID: 2647375-4). This document describes the terms of use.

The Service is under continuous improvement and its functionality and contents are thus constantly revised and improved. The service provider retains a right to alter the Service, these terms of use or discontinue the Service whenever at its own discretion without prior notice, excluding however such changes concerning processing of personal data which under EU General Data Protection Regulation (2016/679) require consent of the data subject. Essential changes to terms of use are notified with email when necessary.

In case the User does not accept a notified change to terms of use, the User may close his or her user account by contacting the service provider and discontinuing the use of the Service. If the User continues to use the Service after receiving a notification, this is deemed as acceptance of changes to terms of use.

The use of the Service requires that the user has registered to the Service. User shall not transfer his or her user account information (username, password) or the right to use the Service to third parties. The User is to handle his or her username and password with due care in order to prevent disclosure to third parties.

All rights to the Service (including i.a. its content, functionality and layout) and immaterial property rights thereto belong to VTT or third party. The User is granted a free of charge, non-exclusive, non-transferable right to use, without any right to sublicense, the Service in accordance with these terms of use for own non-commercial purpose. The use of Service for any other purpose and especially for commercial use requires VTT's prior written consent.

The functionality of Service is free of charge to the User. The User is responsible for his or her own data transfer costs and other costs and expenses caused by the user of Service. The service provider is not responsible for costs caused by Internet connection or transfer of mobile data.

The use of Service and its results is at the sole responsibility of the User. The Service is available on an "AS IS" basis without any liability for its performance, availability, faultlessness, non-infringement of third party rights or otherwise. The Service may suffer from interruptions, errors or disturbance concerning availability or availability, i.a. due to maintenance.

In case the User is in breach of these terms of use, the service provider may close the user account of the User by notifying this to the User.
